

Partnership Strategy Matrix

Activity Domains (List all)	Community savings and loan groups	Training	Diversified non-traditional loan products	Emergency Intervention	Information resource sharing system
	Distribution of micro-finance loans Insurance for livestock Financial services for the poor Sustainable and profitable savings, credit, loans Culturally appropriate	Agricultural and animal husbandry Micro-credit, savings and loan Disaster rehabilitation Other training, as appropriate	Animals Seeds Money Other appropriate resources, as needed	Livestock intervention Agricultural recovery plan	Emergency information distribution database linked to loan distributions to facilitate sharing among all partners
Actors (List and describe)	Heifer Intl. - Livestock and agricultural implementation and expertise, no interest living loan, training expertise Action Aid - Advocacy, Identification of regional/local partners, partnerships, intl promotion, scale up Save the Children - Micro-finance expertise, global reach, nutrition, savings and loan approach, seed provision expertise IRC - Disaster management and recovery efforts, resource mobilization, disaster training, people tracking capabilities
Process Factors (Typically 3-5 factors)	Savings led approaches		Disaster Mitigation		Community focused development
	Empowering local communities through village banks Central funds for emergency relief		Disaster risk reduction through insurance for livestock and agriculture in local communities		Distributing micro-finance loans through a community lending system
Value-Adding Mechanisms (List and describe top 3-5)	Aggregation	Global and local networks	Scale up	Innovation
	Aggregate multiple loan products	For advocacy and information sharing	Expanding and advocating the Heifer and Save Models	Diversification of the Heifer model and Save Micro-finance and adjusting them to natural disaster situations
Impact on Service Coverage and Quality (Describe)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Empowering local communities with sustainable livelihoods and the power to rebuild themselves after natural disaster. ○ Ensuring continued economic stability in communities affected by natural disaster. ○ A greater focus on the food crisis and needs of communities in disaster prone regions. 				