

Task Analysis - Case 21

1. Map Legal's previous course
2. Map other stakeholders course needs/wants
3. Map overlapping interests
4. Identify outlying interests (unique to specific groups)
5. Research other product liability/safety courses & speak to outside "experts"
6. Design rough instructional plan that meets universal needs in large group and outlying interests in subgroups.
 - a. design should based on problem solving activities with hypothetical situations
7. Conduct a stakeholders meeting inviting key members of each group
 - a. present universal content needs
 - b. present universal behavioral outcome needs
 - c. discuss presence of outlying needs
8. Get feedback and buy in from key stakeholders
9. Revise curriculum design
10. Stakeholders meeting
11. Repeat 7 & 8 as necessary
12. Conduct pilot training
13. Assess outcome of training through hypothetical problem/case solving
14. Stakeholders meeting to review results
15. Revise curriculum
16. Repeat 11-14 as necessary
17. Implement full scale training