

0434. Common Requirements and Alternatives.

The continuation of staff estimate should lead logically to conclusions regarding required and alternative operational capabilities as well as options for their employment in time and space. The results of staff estimate will facilitate the development of COAs by helping to determine: