

c) Commander's Course of Action Update.

The commander may be briefed or intervene periodically to further guide and focus the OPG by eliminating or revising options under development or adding new options. The OPG may provide a formal or more informal update brief to the Commander to obtain guidance for further development of specific COAs. This is particularly important during Crisis Response Planning when time may be constrained.