

Indications

This technique is used to block the Tibial nerve or the Fibular (peroneal) nerve.

It is useful during procedures such as digit removal and granuloma removal from the digital skin.

This IVRA procedure can be done quickly with skilled staff, also it is inexpensive.

IVRA allows rapid onset with complete anaesthesia of the foot.