

Paper 2 Assignment

Analyze one new media story in relation to storytelling traditions regarding character development, interactivity, and ethics. The story you choose must be different from the stories you analyzed in Paper 1. Analyze two specific, traditional templates or techniques in each of the three categories. Use evidence (quotes and/or images) from the story to back up your points. Your paper should be 800-1000 words. This assignment is worth 200 points.

Research question:

To what extent does the new media story _____ adhere to, modify, or reject the traditions of storytelling with regard to character development, interactivity, and values?
