

Client information

- The client/ farmer should be made aware of the procedure done, possible complication, aftercare and wound management.
- They should be educated on how often the hooves should be trimmed.
- Why it is necessary for hooves to be trimmed.
- The required period for the animal to rest to allow for proper healing.
- Drugs required post surgery.
- What to do in the event a complication arises.
- Signs to note of a possible complication.
- Treatment options of possible complications.
- Providing a proper diet & nutrition requirements.
- Exercise requirements for healthy hooves.
- Proper flooring required for healthy hooves.
- Further information on septic arthritis, prophylactic hoof trimming and solar abscess (depending on the case).