

Post operative- Animal:

-monitor patient for approximately 10 days:

-dehorning may result in an open frontal sinus, therefore, special care must be taken to clean immediately after the procedure (and until the wound has healed completely)

-post operative injectables such as antibiotics and NSAIDS needs to be given

-the wound should be properly cleaned and sprayed using a topical parasiticide (anti myiasis spray) should be used to prevent infection

-an injectable anti parasitic drug (ivermectin) can be used

-the wound should be properly cleaned and sprayed using a topical antibiotic should be used to prevent infection

-the wound should be properly cleaned and sprayed using a topical antiseptic spray which will aid in skin healing