

Post operative- Client:

-the client must be informed of all the complications and risks involved with dehorning and disbudding

-follow ups should be done:

- ask the client to contact the veterinarian immediately if anything abnormal is noticed
- contact the client and inquire about the patient
- schedule a specified date to check on patient if necessary
- advise client to use a trough to feed (rather than a hayrack) as this help prevent contamination of wound